Getting your License

Residency Requirement: You do not have to be a resident of Ohio.

- If you are NOT a resident of Ohio, you must get married in the county where the license is obtained.
- If you ARE a resident of Ohio, at least one of you MUST be a resident of the county in which you are applying.

Ohio residents may use the license anywhere in the state. Licenses are valid for 60 days.

Getting your License in Franklin County

www.co.franklin.oh.us/probate/

Persons planning to obtain a marriage license from the Franklin County Probate Court can begin the process on-line if at least one of the applicants is a resident of Franklin County and the marriage ceremony will be performed in the State of Ohio. In addition, out of State residents being married in Franklin County, Ohio may also use the on-line marriage license application process. Out of State residents being married in Ohio counties other than Franklin, must obtain their license in the county where the marriage will be solemnized. There are special requirements for minors to obtain a marriage license. Please call our marriage department for further information.

The on-line marriage application process allows the Bride (female) and the Groom (male) to begin their application prior to appearing at the Courthouse. This process is intended to obtain basic information from the Bride and Groom to shorten the amount of time they spend in the Court's marriage department.

Applicants with previous marriages will need to provide information on all previous marriages when they appear before the deputy clerk to complete the application process. The applicants must present a certified copy of the court decree terminating the last marriage or in case of death a certified copy of the spouse's death certificate. Information regarding the two (2) most recent prior marriages must be entered into the on-line form.

Upon completion of the on-line marriage application, both Bride and Groom must appear together at the Franklin County Probate Court to complete the application process, pay the fee, ($50.00 cash only) and obtain the marriage license. Each applicant must display picture identification (valid drivers license, valid state identification card or passport) and a social security card. On-line applications will remain on file for sixty (60) days. If the marriage license is not obtained within this period of time, a new application must be completed. This application process will not allow corrections. If a mistake is found on the on-line application after it has been completed, changes will be made when the applicants appear before the Court to obtain their marriage license.

A minor must first obtain the consent of the minor's parents, surviving parent, parent who is designated the residential parent and legal custodian of the child by a court of competent jurisdiction, guardian, or any one of the following who has been awarded permanent custody of the minor by a court exercising juvenile jurisdiction:

How do we apply?

Both marriage applicants must apply in person, together. The license may be obtained in this county if one of the applicants is a resident of Franklin County. The license may be used anywhere in the State of Ohio. This Court will also issue the license if neither of the applicants is a resident of the State of Ohio, but the marriage ceremony must take place in Franklin County. The minimum age for applying for a license in Ohio, without parental consent, is eighteen (18) years of age. No blood tests or physical examinations are required in Ohio. You may begin your license application on-line.

The cost of the license is presently $40.00 cash only, and must be paid upon completion of the application. A valid picture I.D. with social security number* and date of birth is required. In lieu of a picture I.D., the Court will accept a birth certificate and a social security card*.

* All social security numbers are held in confidence.

NEW BEGINNINGS WEDDING SERVICES & CHAPEL

How do I change my name after I'm married?

By custom, a wife who chooses to take her husband's name as a result of marriage does not need to go through a court proceeding to change her name. This may be accomplished by notifying the appropriate agencies. By way of example, a wife should record her new name with Social Security, her employer, the IRS, the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, the Board of Elections, the school she attends or has children attending, credit card companies, and all financial institutions in which she has accounts.

The husband may adopt the wife's name and the parties may hyphenate their name. However, since these changes are not common, they may be more difficult to accomplish. The parties may need to file a legal name change by filing an application for name change in the Probate Court of the county of residence for the past year and meeting other statutory requirements.

Employers should be notified of the change in marital status. If appropriate, the married couple should adjust their federal and state income tax withholdings and the beneficiaries of any retirement plans or Insurance Policy. Some contracts, divorce decrees, and domestic court rules require notice of the change in the marital status. Such documents should be reviewed to determine if notice is necessary. If either party changes their residence address, the Board of Elections in the county of the new residence should be contacted.

Individuals should be aware of the existence of nongovernmental agencies claiming to change social security and/or credit card information for a nominal fee. The Franklin County Probate Court does not endorse such services. This can be accomplished at no charge by directly contacting Social Security and other entities.

The above information was found on the Franklin County Probate Court web site
